

MS in Oral Sciences

Name:
UIN:
Advisor:
Entry Date:
C & R Day:

Oral Sciences Master’s Degree Program: The Master’s Degree Program in Oral Sciences requires students to complete 32 semester hours of Graduate studies culminating with a capstone project or written thesis and oral defense. In this program, students are required to complete 20 semester hours in the core curriculum; 12 semester hours of OSCI 598 MS Thesis Research if following the Thesis Track; or 6 semester hours of OSCI 597 Capstone Project Research along with an additional 6 semester hours of Selectives approved by the student’s MS Advisor.

Core Requirements (20 semester hours)

Course	Term	Hours	Grade
OSCI 560 CRN: 42634	Fall _____	4	_____
OSCI 561 CRN: 42635	Fall _____	4	_____
OSCI 562 CRN: 42229	Spring _____	4	_____
OSCI 563 CRN: 42230	Spring _____	4	_____
OSCI 564 CRN: 42709	Fall _____	1	_____
OSCI 564 CRN: 42228	Spring _____	1	_____
OSCI 564 CRN: 42709	Fall _____	1	_____
OSCI 564 CRN: 42228	Spring _____	1	_____

Research (12 semester hours of 598 or 6 semester hours of 597)

Course	Term	Hours	Grade

Selectives (6 semester hours required if following Capstone Project Track, additional semester hours over 32 are encouraged but not necessary for degree completion. Chosen in consultation with and approved by MS Advisor)

Course	Term	Hours	Grade

Total Hours: _____

Core Course Titles:

OSCI 560: Structure, Organization and Regulation of Dental Healthcare and Research (4 Credit Hours)

OSCI 561: Molecular Basis of Oral Diseases and Relationship to Systemic Health (4 Credit Hours)

OSCI 562: Developmental, Structural, and Functional Craniofacial Biology (4 Credit Hours)

OSCI 563: Wound Healing and Regenerative Sciences (4 Credit Hours)

OSCI 564: Interdisciplinary Research Seminar (1 Credit Hours, Repeated Four Semesters)

OSCI 597: Capstone Project Research (2 Credits per Semester)

OSCI 598: Thesis Research (2 Credits per Semester)